WHAT IS SUCCESS?

Is it to worship earthly, groveling gold, And dollar-blinded, to look only down.

To take the muck-heap, and forget the crown, Until youth's bounding blood creeps strangely cold;

To dwell with envy, arrogance and dread, To barter all benevolence for dross, To lose companionship, nor feel its loss,

Because the flower of sympathy is dead— Is that success?

To labor for the rainbow bubble, foam—Afloat so fairly in the morning air— A perfect jewel for a Prince to wear, Is it a recompense for all its claim?

Thro' careful night, and crowded, strenuous day, Thro' iron rebuff, or flattery-like snow, It leaves one thirsty—it is grasped, and lo!

It vanishes in nothingness away! Is that success?

With comrade duty, in the dark or day, To follow truth—wherever it may lead;

To hate all meanness, cowardice or greed; To look for beauty under common clay; Our brothers' burden sharing when they weep,

But, if we fail, to bear defeat alone; To live in hearts that loved us, when we're gone, Beyond the twilight (till the morning break!) to sleep— Is that success?

—Ernest Reed Lyon.

Payable to Collector at end of Month.

JUDGE CANTRELL at Paris recently imposed some heavy and well-deserved sentences on several Negro craps-shooters. Will the Hon. "Craps" BECKHAM pardon these?

If the reported plan to trade the new Kentucky Judgeship for the personal advantage of certain aspiring politicians is successful, it ought to eternally damn every man who has a hand in the scheme.

AFTER the Washington correspondents of the Louisville papers get through appointing ex-Congressman FLOYD and ex-Governor BRADLEY to the new Federal Judgeship in Kentucky, President McKINLEY will appoint ANDREW COCHRAN.

MR. CRAPS BECKHAM, filling the office with the people of Kentucky elected WILLIAM S. TAYLOR, has utterly ignored the request of the Bar Association of Louisville for a conference in regard to the charges he preferred against the Prosecuting Attorney of Louisville. CRAPS appears to be the whole push.

WHACK it to 'em! Auditor COULTER in a few days will notify the life insurance companies doing business in Kentucky to submit reports for franchise taxation. The Auditor holds that these corporations are taxable on franchise valuations under the provisions of Section 4078 of the Statutes, though the former Auditor did not make any effort at collection. It is estimated that such assessment, made retroactive, as is contemplated, would yield about $100,000 to the State Treasury in addition to local taxation in the cities and counties where the companies are doing business. Whack it to 'em!

The appraisal of the estate of the late John H. Fitzgerald is $2,246.13.

J. F. Barbour, named in the will, qualified as Executor of the late John G. Hickman without bond.

William Poe has been appointed Road Overseer in the Murphyville District in place of Robert Poe, resigned.

M. L. Lane is improving the building of Mr. J. W. Denold on West Second, recently purchased from Mr. George H. Traxel.

We have our place full of Granite and Marble Monuments and must make room for spring stock. So buy now or get our reduced prices. Murray & Thomas, 108 West Second street.

The Council of the Diocese of Lexington will meet in St. John's Church, Versailles, on Tuesday, May 28th. The Church of the Nativity will elect delegates on the first Monday in May.

Charles Purche, alias Bush, was in 'Squire Grant's Court, charged with breaking into a C. and O. car at Dover. He was held in $200 to appear before the June Grand Jury, and his father came up from Newport and gave bond.

The will of the late John G. Hickman has been admitted to record. He authorizes the sale of all his property, and after the payment of any debts and the expenses of administration, the balance is left to his son, Mr. Sam T. Hickman.

Smith, who was a clerk in the office of Auditor Sweeney and who served the state till the Republican officials were turned out in office in June, last year, filed a mandamus suit against Auditor Coultter Saturday to compel him to pay him $225 salary, due for work in the months of March, April, May and half of the month of June last year while the contests over the state offices were pending. Work Talks on Advertising

By Charles Austin Bates.

More things enter into advertising than are generally supposed. In fact everything that connects a name and a business in people's minds is advertising.

Membership in Churches and clubs and societies, the giving of social entertainments, public charities—all these things and more are advertising. But greater and broader and better and easier than all these is newspaper advertising. You may think of that without thinking of the other plans, but no scheme of publicity is complete without the newspaper.

Properly presented, newspaper advertising will always pay. That here and there is a man who says "Advertising doesn't pay, I've tried it," proves nothing but that his method was faulty.

Advertising is business news. It tells of things which are of great daily importance. It is of more account to the frugal housewife to know where she can get certain necessary commodities at a less price than usual than to know all the troubles in Siam or Alaska.

The news should be news. It should not be allowed to grow stale with repetition in the same old way.

If you can advertise only in a small way, pick out the best paper in your territory and spend all of your advertising money in that. Don't scatter. When your business grows, and you can spend more money, buy more space in the same paper until you are sure you are using all you profitably can. Then add another paper. I would rather have one good "ad," than half a dozen poor ones. When "hunting for bear" I would rather take the best gun I had and load it properly than to scatter my powder in half a dozen poor guns, and so "make a flash in the pan."

Publishing merely your name, address and business will do some good, but there is a better way. Be different from the others in your line. Find some point in which you excel and harp on that. Give prices and specialties. Try to make the advertisements interesting and readable. Make them characteristic of your store, and, above all things, make them true in letter and in spirit.

Don't say that you haven't the time to attend to your advertising properly. Here, you haven't time to do anything else. Advertising is the most important thing about any business. It is the vital spark. What good does it do you to have the very thing or the very greatest bargain on earth if you don't know it?

In running a newspaper James Gordon Bennett, Sr., said the important thing was to "get the news and then make a dom fuss about it."

First, get the right sort of goods in the right location at the right prices, and then "make a dom fuss about it" in the best paper you can find. The trade will follow.

A Day's Doings in Kentucky.

RIVAL POLITICAL FACTIONS.

A Bloody Battle at Caney, Morgan County, Ky., in Which Ten Men Were Wounded.

Lexington, Ky., March 19.—Ten men were wounded in a bloody battle between rival political factions at Caney, Morgan County, on Saturday. A primary election was being held in Caney and a dispute arose, it is said, over the question of the right of certain persons to cast their ballots. Nearly every man at the polling place was armed and as the quarrel progressed, weapons were drawn. The first shot was the signal for a general fight and when the smoke cleared away ten wounded men were lying on the ground. They were carried to neighboring houses and physicians were summoned. The doctors stated, however, that none of the victims would die.

A messenger carried the news of the affair to West Liberty, but he knew none of the details beyond those given. The names of the injured men are not given.

HORRIBLE DEATH.

James Hightley Was Killed While Consuming in Bath.

Owingsville, Ky., March 19.—James Hightley met a horrible death in the eastern part of this county while on a hunt. The dogs "treed" him in a poplar overhanging a cliff 100 feet high. Hightley climbed the tree to shake off what he supposed was a coon, and when near the top a big wild cat sprang upon him. Both came tumbling to the ground, and as soon as they started six savage dogs were upon them. The man's body was almost torn to shreds. When Hightley fell from the tree he locked his arms and legs, and still hung there, but when he picked up by his comrades.

UNEXPECTED DEATH.

The Shock Over the Loss of Two Diamond Rings Led a Bride to Expire.

Padenue, Ky., March 19.—Mrs. Mary Tedder, a bride of two months, and wife of J. W. Tedder, a machinist, died suddenly from a rather unusual cause. Mrs. Tedder was in the market place when she discovered the loss of her two diamond rings from her finger. She once fainted from the shock and was conveyed home in a hack and a physician called.

Only a short time elapsed before her unexpected death took place.

The Jail Strongly Guarded.

Middlesboro, Ky., March 19.—Three hundred coal miners of West Pineville formed to lynch Deputy Sheriff Frank McCoy, of this city, who killed Vance Howard, cousin of Berry Howard, the Goebel subject who is under indictment. The miners learned that McCoy had been around the jail and disbanded. McCoy killed Howard on a night passenger train.

Madden Buys a Fast Filly.

Lexington, Ky., March 19.—The bay filly by Hanover, dam Aquilla, which some days ago worked the sensational track of a half mile at the local track in 9:50, was sold Monday by Gus Strauss to John E. Madden. The price was private but is a large one.

Hidden Treasure Found.

Owingsville, Ky., March 19.—While cleaning some old pictures that hung very high on the wall in the saloon of the late S. E. Frattman, a Negro found a small box in a crevice, which had been hidden there by the former proprietor.

Lovell Was Remorseful.

Bowling Green, Ky., March 19.—Bowling Green, the fact that he had killed a man is considered the cause of the suicide of Stephen Lovell, who died Saturday night of morphia poisoning.

Female Inventor.

Louisville, Ky., March 19.—Miss Frances Colvard has invented a contrivance for changing the ribbon on a typewriter without soiling the hands. She has received an offer of $10,000 for her patent.

Sold His Racing Stable.

Louisville, Ky., March 19.—Peter Bitzer, of Louisville, has sold his racing stable, including Prior, a Derby candidate, to a local syndicate for an untold sum. There were eight horses in the string.

No Pardon for Attorney Wilson.

Frankfort, Ky., March 19.—The second attempt to secure a pardon for Attorney E. K. Wilson, of London, failed. Acting Gov. Carter declined to take up the question. Wilson will now be brought to prison.

Abside by Law.

CONFLUENCE.

Two Blocks of Valuable Property in St. Louis Destroyed by the Flames.

STARTED FROM AN ENGINE'S SPARK.

The Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co. and the American Car & Foundry Co. the Heaviest Losers.

The Total Loss is Estimated at About $100,000, the Greater Part of Which is Covered by Insurance.

St. Louis, March 19.—Fire Monday destroyed the ice storage plant of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co., the repair shop of the American Car & Foundry Co., together with a number of box cars, the factory of Stule & Co., pickle manufacturers, five rooming houses and a number of small sheds.

The total loss is estimated at $100,000, the greater part of which is covered by insurance. Two men, employees of the American Car & Foundry Co., were injured, but not seriously. The burned district embraced two square blocks bounded by Zepf, Union, First and Kosciusko streets.

A Stiff Wind Blew.

While the fire was in progress a stiff southeast wind blew across the river from the Illinois side, fanning the flames and making the work of the firemen an exceedingly difficult one. Piles of lumber adjacent to the storage house quickly ignited, causing a heat which was intense. Several valuable buildings, which escaped damage, were seriously threatened. By far the greater danger attached to buildings more remote from the scene of destruction, but in the direct line of the wind. For miles the river levee is fringed with lumber yards, factories and warehouses, while on the railroad tracks their numerous switches, were scores of cars, many of them loaded with lumber and inflammable material. The high wind fired burning embers and carried them for blocks to the northwest, terrorizing residents, and several times the department was compelled to divide its force in answer to reports of the igniting of fires elsewhere.

Estimates of the Losses.

No buildings not in the immediate path of the flames suffered damage however although many residents and business men as far away as six blocks from the scene removed goods and furnishings from dwellings and stores in a fear that the fire would develop into a widespread conflagration.

Following is a list (estimated) of the losses:

Anheuser-Busch, ice storage plant, $37,000.
American Car & Foundry Co.'s car shed, $10,000.
Fifty box cars belonging to the Anheuser-Busch and William J. Leup Brewing Cos., $25,000.
Stules & Co.'s plant, $5,000.
Five rooming houses, $15,000.

The Little Town of Bismarck, Mo., Almost Wiped Out by Flames—Loss About $100,000.

St. Louis, March 19.—The little town of Bismarck, Mo., situated 25 miles from St. Louis on the Iron Mountain railroad, was almost wiped out of existence by fire Monday night. Leading business houses and many residences were burned. The loss is estimated at $100,000, with very little insurance.

The fire started in a barber shop and spread rapidly in all directions, the inhabitants of the town being without means of fighting the flames.

A Costly Blaze at Nashville, Nashville, Tenn., 19.—The extensive lumber yards and saw and planing mill plant of John B. Ransom & Co. in West Nashville, a suburb of this city, were destroyed by fire Monday afternoon. The loss is estimated at $140,000, with insurance of $115,000. The yards covered 20 acres of ground, and the fire raged fiercely for several hours. It is thought the fire originated from sparks from a locomotive.

Fire at Paragould, Ark. Paragould, Ark., March 19.—The plants of the Paragould Roller Mill Co. and the Rogers planing mill were destroyed by fire Monday night. The total loss is $50,000, partly covered by insurance.

London, March 19.—The Times Tuesday morning makes the following announcement: "We learn that Count Von Waldsee has interfered as commander-in-chief of the allied forces in China to put which, frankly faces a disagreeable situation, says: "We must admit that this is no juncture to risk fresh quarrels. Our armaments are inefficient, and our fleet in the far east is so weak that its position would be perilous. It is a painful process for the nation to have its face slapped, but until the contrary comes the government will put our house in order it is a humiliation to which we must accustom ourselves."

Conflict is Expected.

Tien-Tsin, March 19.—The Russian Gen. Wogack has declined a compromise suggested by Count Von Waldsee.

The tension in Tien-Tsin is gathering in force, and conflict is expected momentarily. The troops of every nation is under arms.

French troops are seemingly aiding the Russians, despite the efforts of their officers to maintain neutrality. Many groups of French troops ran through the British settlement in the afternoon shouting "Down with the English." Fights were frequent, many general undress taking place, in which blood was freely shed, the French carrying side arms.

Three French soldiers attacked Capt. Boeder, British army, and pulled him from the rickshaw. The officer used his fists with good effect but sikhs came to his rescue.

Finally Gen. Campbell surrounded the general call to arms and all the British troops were turned out. The British troops were turned out. The British troops were turned out. The British troops were turned out.

A HORSE FANKE.

It May Delay the Sending of a Part of the 14th Cavalry to Manila for Some Time.

Omaha, March 19.—On account of the horse famine, the sending of the 1st battalion of the 14th Cavalry to the Philippines may have to be deferred for two or three months. This regiment is one of the five cavalry regiments provided for in the new army bill, and it is the course of organization at Fort Leavenworth.

Of the six bids received for horses for this regiment, the average was $15 per head and some $20, which the government has heretofore been paying. The bids were all rejected, and new proposals made, but are not confined to the territory covered by the department.

GEN. HARRISON'S WILL.

The Document Opened and Read in the Presence of the Family—The Contents Not Made Public.

Indianapolis, March 19.—In the presence of the members of Gen. Benjamin Harrison's family Monday afternoon, gathered in the parlor from whence his remains were conveyed last Sunday to his old church and the last resting place at Crown Hill cemetery, his last will and testament was opened and read by W. H. H. Miller, the general's life-long friend and counsellor, in whose hands the instrument was placed soon after its execution in 1888, just before the deed left for Paris to make his argument in the British-Venezuelan case.

The meeting was due to the request of Mr. Miller, who, it is to be presumed, was acting upon a wish of his dead friend, expressed at the time he made his last will, that the executor of the instrument, the significance of which was to be of such a large moment to Gen. Harrison's heirs and legatees.

Ample Provisions for Mrs. Harrison. Those present were Mrs. Harrison, her daughter, Elizabeth, Col. Russell Harrison, Mrs. J. R. McKee, son and daughter of Gen. Harrison by his first wife, and Carter H. Harrison, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., brother of the dead expresident; John Scott Harrison, of Kansas City, the other brother of the testator, was not in attendance, having been compelled to return home Monday forenoon. Nothing could be learned regarding the contents of the will or the provisions of the distribution of the property, but it was a matter of report that Gen. Harrison had made ample and very liberal provision for Mrs. Harrison and their little daughter, and that there could be no reasonable ground, from any direction, for future dispute of the will in the courts.

It is known that Gen. Harrison in his life time was a careful and painstaking investor of his accumulations of wealth acquired in the practice of his profession, and his investments have been such, all most invariably, through many years as to insure profitable and continuous returns. His estate, it is believed, will be found to consist largely of valuable stocks, with small amount of capital invested in bonds.

RIVER NEWS

The Bonanza will be up for Pomeroy tonight.

The Ohio is falling now as far down as Louisville.

When the windy month of March blows out travel on the river will greatly increase.

Saturday was a record-breaking and busy day at the Louisville Falls. Over 120 barges and about 400 coalboats and others were sent over the Falls.

Should the present fine stage of water now on in the Ohio from Pittsburgh to Cairo remain for one year there is no telling how much business would be done by the steamboats.

The mother of Captain Sam Bryant's wife, Mrs. Mary Jane Stewart, died at Pleasant Ridge Saturday morning after six weeks' suffering from pneumonia. She was 96 years old. Mr. Stewart and two daughters survive her. The burial occurred in Aberdeen yesterday morning. During Captain Bryant's absence Captain Charles Dufour will command the City of Cincinnati.

When Captain March McDonald, now deceased, owned the towboat Fearless it is said that he made $10,000 on the boat in a single trip. He was bringing up a tow of pig iron. Low water delayed him for several months, and all the time that the boat was forced to idleness the price of pig iron continued to rise, and about the time he got the boat and cargo to Pittsburgh the metal was selling at the top notch.

The City of St. Louis has been sold to the St. Louis Steamboat Company, which is controlled by Vicksburg and St. Louis steamboat men. They will put new energy in the river business between St. Louis and New Orleans. The Hill City and the City of St. Louis will leave from New Orleans every other twelve days. The company recently received from the Howards the steamer Belle of the Bends, which is reputed to be the fastest on the Mississippi river.

During the past ten days the river combine has sent more coal out than ever before in the same length of time. The amount is over 20,000,000 bushels, and up to Sunday, but three barges were lost—two of them above Cincinnati and the other at the head of Muskingum Island. Coal is valued at 75¢ a bushel. The company, according to one of the Directors, is in a position to send South this year about 100,000,000 bushels, and all that is wanted is plenty of water. Nearly 2,000,000 bushels came down from the Kanawha during the past ten days. Since last November the river combine has sent out about 22,000,000 bushels of coal.

In private life Charles B. Hanford is a man of very unassuming habits.

He never indulges in conspicuous sartorial effects, and his horse and carriage might, so far as appearances are concerned, belong to some prosperous land owner who is visiting the city. A friend of his recently said, "When one sees you on the street you don't seem in the least like a real actor." "Well," rejoined Mr. Hanford thoughtfully, "I can't help it. If people in our profession manage to seem like real actors on the stage they accomplish a great deal in life." Hanford, in "Private John Allen," will be at Opera-house Monday, March 26th.
